Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 10.

ANXIETY ABOUT IMPEACHMENT.

Anxiety to learn the situation of the impeachment question has pervaded all circles to-day. Little has become known as to the views of Senators upon any questions of order, nor has anything transpired to light to impact the conditions which Republicans have felt for the last two days in overtaking.

THE FIRST QUESTION.

The Senate will open at ten, and the first question for settlement will be the manner in which the Senate shall declare their vote. If afterwards, debate follows on the main question, it is believed that the result can be correctly foreshadowed by to-morrow night.

TAX ON WHISKEY.

There has been a movement in the Ways and Means Committee upon the rate of tax on whiskey since the commencement of the session, and a final vote will be taken, and reported to the House to-morrow. Commissioner Wells is collecting statistics on the subject, which time fail to show that the annual product does not exceed 90,000,000 gallons. It has been determined to compel prompt payments of the whiskey already in bond, so as to empty many U warehouses, with a view to closing them as soon as possible.

POLITICAL DISABILITIES.

The Reconstruction Committee will probably report to-morrow in favor of adding the name of Cathcart Boyden, member elect from the twelfth district, N. C., District, to the bill relieving political disabilities. Mr. Boyden is returned as a Democrat, though he never voted the ticket of that party, and was a Whig member of the Thirtieth Congress, and an active Union man during the whole war. He was one of the most prominent in the Union Convention which met at Raleigh in September last, and framed the present constitution of the State.

NEW CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

The new Congregational Church which has been erected on the corner of Fifteenth and I streets, in the north of the North, was opened for services for the first time to-day. The building costs almost 1,000, and is handsome.

MEETING OF SOUTHERN REPUBLICANS.

A meeting of Southern Republicans now in this city, of which Governor Brownlow is chief, will take place to-morrow night. The object of this proposed conference has not transpired, but the relations of the southern States to Congress, and also to representation in the Chicago Convention.

TEXAS.

Ex-Governor Hamilton has reached this city from Texas, and reports that Republicans are frequently made that Union men are subjected to severe persecutions throughout the State. He assures them at least that 70,000 votes can be rendered since the appointment of Hancock to the command of the Fifth District.

THE SOLDIERS' VOTE.

The soldiers and sailors of this District will hold a mass meeting on Tuesday to nominate candidates for Congress Convention of this district, now, or here. Governor Geary, Generals Logan and Sickles, and Senator Wilson will take part in the proceedings.

REVIVAL OF A RUMOR.

The Chronicle this morning revives the story that the President is deliberating upon the propriety of filing his resignation in the State Department, and retiring to private life.

AS OTHERS SEE IT.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—What the result of the impeachment trial will be is a question which all the managers will vote upon the question, is not known to the public. The Chronicle says opposition to the trial is increasing, and that the managers are receiving $1.07 per day, and board while in New York or Washington. The Tribune says the managers have not been at extravagant expense, have not been at extravagant expense, and will be ample to meet it.

The Secretary of State has received from the British Minister, at Washington, the following:

Mr. Seward replied as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, May 9, 1868.

MY DEAR MR. THORNTON: I thank you for the friendly information you have given me in your note of this day, that the claims of Messrs. Eagle, Hooper, Lowell, Lee and Hughes have been paid.

WM. H. SEWARD.

A DARING OUTRAGE IN KANE COUNTY.

A Woman Dangerously Wounded by Burglars.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

Our usually quiet town and neighborhood was thrown into a state of excitement yesterday, by the successful robbery of Mr. James Turney, and a brutal assault on his wife, two miles and a half west of this place.

Mr. Turney, who is a respectable and substantial farmer, has engaged plastering here near his house. His wife came into the field about 4 o'clock, bearing the dinner servants, as has custom, when the family were all out, the house was entered and a sum of money, about $300, taken. Mrs. Turney returned, as she supposed, and entered the house; but she perceived a bad smell, and on looking around, found a bad and reasonable man, but after the theft, he had taken to the bed-room, and discovered Mrs. Turney in the act of leaving the house. She ran to the door, when the villain struck her a heavy blow with a hammer, which he had used in the robbery, and pursuing upon her closed with her, and Proceedings of the Eighth Day's Session.

Resolution Relative to the Assignment of Pastors.

Question of Electoral Powers—Repeal of Vote of Censure—Change of Boundaries—Printing Minutes.

Speech of Dr. Foote on Admission of Southern Delegates.

The eighth daily session of the Methodist General Conference was called to order at 9 A. M., yesterday, by Bishop Simpson.

The Cl. Psalm was read, and the hymn commencing

"Great Shepherd of Thy people, hear,"

was sung.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Paddock.

The minutes of the afternoon session of the previous day were read and approved.

Bishop Clark said that at the last General Conference a committee was appointed to consider the subject of what constitutes the members of what is known as the Electoral Conference, and to report to the next General Conference. That committee had given much time to the matter, and had given much thought to it, and had finally arrived at the conclusion that it was not necessary to make any change in the present law. He had himself been a member of the Electoral Conference, and he thought the present law was very good. He would, however, move that the report be received and laid on the table.

The motion was carried.

Bishop Clark said that at the last General Conference a resolution was passed to the effect that the Bishops should have the right to change the boundaries of Conferences, and that the Bishops had not exercised that power. He would move that the resolution be rescinded.

Dr. Curtis offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Bishops be requested to report to the General Conference, if practicable, the number of ministerial and lay members of the Church in each county of the United States.

Dr. Curtis said that he had offered the resolution for the purpose of obtaining information which he thought would be valuable to the Church.

Dr. Fisher moved that the resolution be laid on the table.

The motion was carried.

Dr. Curtis offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Conference be instructed to have printed for the use of the members of the General Conference, at the close of the present session, such portion of the Journal of the present session as may be ordered by the General Conference.

Agreed to by general consent.

Mr. Cornell offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Journal be referred to the Committee on Revisions.

Agreed to by general consent.

Mr. Wightman, D. D. (Louisville and Nashville), said that the people should have the opportunity of associating with the Bishops in regard to the Episcopal address, and he would therefore move that it be printed.

Mr. Wightman, D. D., then read the following resolution:

Resolved, That the General Conference be and is hereby requested to appoint a committee of one from each Conference, to be selected by the Bishop presiding in said Conference, as nominated by the delegation from said Conference, or in case of failure to report in time, by the Bishop presiding in the Conference, to which committee shall be referred the Episcopal address, with instructions to report to this body such portions thereof as they may deem proper to be published.

Mr. Wightman, D. D., said that the object of the resolution was to afford the people an opportunity of expressing their views on the Episcopal address. He thought that such representatives as could be had in daily session would be sufficient for the purpose, and he suggested as delegates to the committee.

JOURNAL PRINTED.

Mr. Hunter said that Bishop Bishop's address was one of the most valuable documents that had been issued from the Southern Conferences, and the Publishing Committee, he thought, would be doing a good work if they published it. He would therefore move that the first one to be called on after the reading of the minutes of the session be requested to report on the propriety of publishing the address.

Dr. Curtis said that he had no objection to the publication of the address, but he thought that the Committee on Revisions should first report on the propriety of publishing it.

Dr. Foote then moved that the Committee on Missions consider the propriety of establishing missions, and, if deemed necessary, appoint missionaries to Mexico.

Dr. Haygood, of Georgia, said that it was no secret that the Methodist Episcopal Church had established missions in Mexico, and that they had been abandoned by failure.

Dr. Foote said that he was not aware that the Church had established missions in Mexico, and that they had been abandoned by failure. He was aware that the Church had established missions in Mexico, but they had been abandoned by the Church, and from the information he had received from Mexico, he was satisfied that the time had arrived when the Church should again establish missions in that country.

Dr. Foote then proceeded to speak at length in favor of the resolution. He said that the Church was bound to send missionaries to Mexico, and that the Church would be recreant to its duty if it failed to do so. He was aware that there were difficulties in the way, but they were not insurmountable. The Church was bound to go to Mexico, and it was bound to go there at once. The condemnation laid by our Lord upon the Church of Laodicea was applicable to the Church of the present day. The Church was always to be found in the rear of the column. It was always behind the times. It was without fervency. The Church was not in earnest. It was not in earnest in the matter of the establishment of missions in Mexico.
